

BOYS & GIRLS CLUB
OF THE LOWER NAUGATUCK VALLEY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contacts:

Jack Ribas
203-924-7462

Michael Cotela
203-924-9329

ANDREANA FOURSOME
WINS RED LARSEN CLASSIC

Shelton, CT, September 24, 2008 – The foursome of Joe Andreana, Mike Andreana, Steve Geissler, and Martin Occhino shot a 12 under par 59 to capture the 37th annual Boys & Girls Club of the Lower Naugatuck Valley golf tournament.

Thirty-three foursomes participated in the golf classic held at Woodbridge Country Club. Cars for two hole-in-ones were provided by Curtiss-Ryan Honda of Shelton and Healey Ford of Ansonia.

Second low gross was won by New Alliance Bank's foursome of Ray Kostka, Dave Czaplicki, Steve Villecco, and Deke Hotchkiss with a score of 60.

Third low gross was won by Pierre Dziubina, Mike Pingree, Wally Ward, and Don Samatulski with a score of 61, 10 under par.

Dave Czaplicki won the longest drive contest, and Janet Spingler won the closest to the line contest. Dave also won the JetBlue Challenge and just missed winning the $50,000 Grand Prize with a shot of 2' 4" on the 150-yard shoot out contest.

The ladies pairings was won by the Kroll Investigation foursome of Lexanne Kroll, Lou Manger, Janet Spingler, and Kristen Vieter.

Low net was won with a score of 55 by the Manger Die Casting Team of Bob Manger, Anthony Spingler, Bill Vietze, and Pete Witiak.

Second low net was won by Mark Mulston, Bob Miner, Bob Mancini, and Jim Egan with a net score of 56.

Third low net was won by the Anthony & Reale team comprised of Matt Reale, John Fedell, Gary Seymour, and Walter Fedor with a score of 56.5.

This is the 37th consecutive year the Boys & Girls Club has run its golf classic, which was named five years ago after its former president and long-time golf tournament chairman John "Red" Larsen. This year's tournament was sponsored by Hawley Construction, and the JetBlue Challenge was sponsored by Naugatuck Valley Savings & Loan.

###